Donation & Support Campaign — Disclosure & Terms

Use this fillable disclosure to run an honest, compliant fundraiser for your for-profit business. Complete the bracketed fields, delete anything that does not apply, and post the finished disclosure wherever you ask for support: a jar sign, your website, or a crowdfunding page.

1. Business Information

Legal business name: _____

Doing-business-as (DBA) name, if any: _____

Business address: _____

Business structure (sole proprietor / LLC / corporation): _____

Contact name, email, and phone: _____

2. Campaign Details

Purpose and exactly how the funds will be used: _____

Fundraising goal amount: _____

Campaign start date and end date: _____

Platform or method (GoFundMe / own website / in person / other): _____

3. Legal Status Disclosure (Required)

Post this statement, in plain view, on your campaign so supporters are not misled:

“[Business Name] is a for-profit small business, not a charity or tax-exempt nonprofit. Contributions are gifts of support, not tax-deductible donations, and we cannot issue a tax receipt or a charitable-contribution deduction.”

☐ I have stated the business is for-profit, not a charity

☐ I have NOT described contributions as tax-deductible

☐ I have NOT implied nonprofit or 501(c)(3) status

4. What Supporters Receive

☐ Nothing in return (a gift of support)

☐ A reward or perk (this is a sale; may be taxable and subject to sales tax)

☐ Membership or subscription benefits

☐ Repayment of their money (this is a loan; attach a promissory note)

Describe any reward, perk, membership, or repayment terms: _____

5. Refund Policy

State whether contributions are refundable, and any conditions: _____

6. Tax & Records

Money raised for a for-profit business is generally taxable income, whether or not a Form 1099-K is issued. Set aside a share for taxes and keep records for at least three years.

Person responsible for tracking and reporting the income: _____

Where records and receipts are stored: _____

7. Contribution Log

Date	Supporter	Amount	Type (gift/reward/loan)	What they received
